

DAY 1:

This afternoon board your deluxe motorcoach and depart for the TEXAS RENAISSANCE FESTIVAL located in Plantersville. Check into your accommodations, conveniently located near the festival.

DAY 2:

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel. Board your motorcoach and depart for the Texas Renaissance Festival. The King and the Queen invite you to join them at the 2005 Texas Renaissance Festival. Step back in time in the year 1537, where an enchanted 50-acre New Market Village comes to life as hundreds of performers perform for you on 11 main stages. Knights of King Henry VII's court charge into battle with jousting matches and chariot races. As you stroll along the shaded cobblestone pathways, you will see court dancers, wandering minstrels, comical jugglers, giant puppets, and sword fighters. Also with this weekend's theme, "1001 Dreams", bring your dreams to life as wizards, elves and fairies enchant the streets of our fair village. Live the fantasy! His Majesty King Henry VIII cordially invites you to join in our hands-on learning experience and explore the age of enlightenment! Over 350 arts and crafts shops offer one-of-a-kind treasures from around the world including: pottery, sculpted metal, wood carvings, leather work, jewelry, shined glass, and exotic imports. Venture into the food court where King Henry proclaims his kingdom a smorgasbord of international foods! An endless menu includes succulent turkey legs, hot roasted cashews, steak on a stake, scotch eggs, and fried ice cream. You may want to see an enchanting stage act such as the King's Falconer Birds of Prey
